

In The Pines

Am C Dm F
Hey girl, hey girl, don't lie to me,
Am E Am
Tell me where did you sleep last night

Am C
In the pines, in the pines
Dm F
Where the sun never shines
Am E Am
And I shivered the whole night through

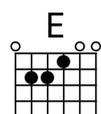

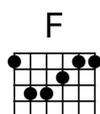

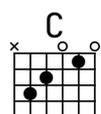

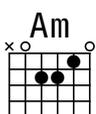

Am C Dm F
My daddy was a railroad man,
Am E Am
Killed a mile and a half from here
Am C Dm F
His head was found in a driver's wheel
Am E Am
His body as never found

Am C Dm F
Hey girl, hey girl, where will you go,
Am E Am
I'm goin' where the cold wind blows

Am C
In the pines, in the pines
Dm F
Where the sun never shines
Am E Am
And you shiver the whole night through

Instrumental

Am C Dm F
The longest train I ever saw,
Am E Am
went down that Georgia line
Am C Dm F
The engine passed at six o'clock,
Am E Am
and the cab came around at nine

Am C Dm F
The prettiest girl I ever saw
Am E Am
lived down that railroad track
Am C Dm F
Red rosey cheeks and blue eyes fair
Am E Am
and the curls hung down her back

Am C Dm F
My darling was killed last Friday night,
Am E Am
Just a half a mile from town
Am C Dm F
Her head was lain in the carbox floor
Am E Am
And her body has never been found

Am C Dm F
Hey girl, Hey girl what have I done,
Am E Am
For to make you treat me so
Am C Dm F
You have caused me to weep, you caused me to mourn
Am E Am
and you caused me to lose my home

Am C
In the pines, in the pines
Dm F
Where the sun never shines
Am E Am
And you shiver when cold winds blow
Am C
In the pines, in the pines
Dm F
Where the sun don't ever shine
Am E Am
And we'll shiver the whole night through
